About

Wanted Man: America's Premier Tribute to Ratt

Hailing from the very streets that birthed a global phenomenon, Los Angeles-based Wanted Man stands as the premier tribute to the definitive era of Sunset Strip hard rock. They exist to capture that specific, fleeting moment in the 1980s when glam collided with grit, resurrecting the raw energy and unapologetic sleaze-rock swagger that dominated the Decade of Decadence.

At the epicenter of this sonic assault is frontman Michael Hernandez. Possessing an electrifying vocal range and the requisite snarling attitude of the genre's most iconic frontmen, Hernandez doesn't just sing the hits; he embodies the era's cocky swagger. His commanding stage presence ensures that every performance is a high-octane salute to the legends who made the Sunset Strip infamous.

Backed by a band dedicated to razor-sharp precision—featuring the essential blistering dual-guitar attacks and thunderous rhythm sections of the time—Wanted Man delivers note-perfect recreations of the anthems you know by heart. A Wanted Man show isn't just a concert; it’s an immersive time machine, transporting audiences straight back to the golden age of neon, leather, and pure rock n' roll excess.
