All Key'd Up - California's Premier Tribute to Billy Joel

About

All Key'd Up delivers more than a tribute show—they recreate the unforgettable experience of seeing Billy Joel in his later touring years, when every concert celebrated the full depth of his legendary catalog. Rather than focusing on a single era, the band captures the spirit of Billy Joel's 21st-century performances, taking audiences on a journey through decades of timeless hits, fan favorites, and beloved deep cuts.

At the heart of the show is lead vocalist and pianist Mark, whose remarkable vocal resemblance to Billy Joel is what audiences notice first—and remember long after the final encore. His authentic delivery, combined with a stellar group of seasoned musicians, creates a performance that feels strikingly true to the sound, energy, and emotion of the original Piano Man.

Fans don't just attend an All Key'd Up show to hear Billy Joel's songs—they come to relive the excitement, musicianship, and connection that made Billy Joel's live performances legendary. From the first piano chord to the final singalong, audiences are immersed in a concert experience that is both nostalgic and exhilarating. Every performance is packed with familiar anthems that have audiences singing at the top of their lungs, dancing in the aisles, and celebrating the music that has become the soundtrack to generations.

Whether performing at theaters, casinos, or other music venues, All Key'd Up consistently leaves audiences saying the same thing: "It's like seeing Billy Joel live again." Their commitment to
