All My Rowdy Friends

A Tribute To Hank Williams Jr.

About

“Is that Hank Jr?” That’s what Hank Jr. fans are saying when they’ve seen Frank Morrow walk into the room! With his natural look and vocals, Frank's amazing resemblance and impersonation of Hank Jr. creates a presence on stage and off that leaves audiences wondering if it was a tribute act, or did they just see "Bocephus" live and up close!

Invited on stage at the famous Tootsies in Nashville Tennessee by the performing band, Frank had the entire room mesmerized when he began to sing "Blues Man." Everywhere Frank goes folks believe that Hank Jr. is in the room and the lines form for photos, autographs, or just a simple handshake.

The Nations One and Only Hank Williams Jr. Tribute show, "All My Rowdy Friends" band features Frank Morrow! From the east coast to the west coast, to the cornfields of Iowa, the beaches of Florida, and the bijou country of Lousiana, Frank has brought his Hank Jr. show to audiences everywhere since 2009!

Since winning Best Country Tribute Act in 2011, at The Charlotte Music Awards, Frank has performed in theaters, casinos, bike rallies, festivals, nightclubs, and private corporate events. Performing as a headliner act in addition to opening for The Outlaws, The Black Hawks, Aaron Tippin, Craig Campbell, Eric Beddingfield, LoCash, Mustang Sally Band, and Colt Ford just to name a few.

"All My Rowdy Friends" doesn't stop with just a 90 minute all Hank Jr. show. This show includes anything you may see at a real Hank Jr. concert! The band's on stage chemistry and experience creates a performance second to none! They have an impressive list of Hank Jr. and other covers from songs of the south if you like variety with a show that keeps fans coming back for more!
