Summer Breeze SD

Yacht Rock

About

Set sail with Summer Breeze SD, the ultimate 70s yacht rock experience that transports audiences straight into the golden age of smooth. Anchored in San Diego, California, this 7-piece powerhouse brings together a lineup of elite musicians—a veritable who's who of the Southern California music scene—with each member contributing over three decades of professional studio and live performance expertise.

Summer Breeze SD doesn't just play songs from the era—they recreate the magic. With rich vocal harmonies, spot-on instrumentation, and impeccable attention to detail, the band delivers faithful renditions of the genre's most beloved hits. From the silky grooves of Christopher Cross and the breezy hooks of Pablo Cruise to the storytelling brilliance of Gerry Rafferty and Al Stewart, they cover the full spectrum of classic yacht rock with style and precision.

Whether it's the nostalgic sway of "Brandy," the sax-driven soul of "Baker Street," the brassy funk of "Vehicle," or the introspective charm of "Year of the Cat," Summer Breeze SD captures the mood and musicianship that defined an era of mellow sophistication. Audiences can expect a seamless setlist of hits from Toto, Steely Dan, Hall & Oates, Michael McDonald, Boz Scaggs, Little River Band, Ambrosia, and more—each one delivered with the polish and finesse worthy of the originals.

The band offers flexible set lengths ranging from 1 to 4 hours, making them a perfect fit for concert venues, private events, corporate functions, festivals, and yacht clubs alike. Whether you're dancing under the stars or cruising down memory lane, Summer Breeze SD delivers a smooth ride through the greatest soft rock hits of the 70s and early 80s.

So grab a mai tai, loosen that collar, and let the tide of smooth tunes carry you away—because with Summer Breeze SD, every show is a first-class cruise through the soundtrack of a generation.
