About

Cappo Kelley – Lovers Rock Reggae from San Diego, CA

Cappo Kelley is a reggae artist based in San Diego, California, specializing in Lovers Rock Reggae — the smooth, soulful sound made famous by legends like Gregory Isaacs, Sugar Minott, Dennis Brown, Beres Hammond, John Holt, and Bob Marley.

Performing timeless hits from these icons and many more, Cappo Kelley and his band also bring a creative twist to the stage with mashups of classic reggae riddims and modern favorites, along with a solid catalog of original music that fits seamlessly into the genre.

With a proven track record of captivating audiences across a wide variety of venues — from clubs and festivals to celebrity golf tournaments, elementary school PTA events, art gallery openings, fairs, and private parties — the band is celebrated for its versatility and family-friendly performances.

Band configurations range from a tight 3-piece setup (guitar/vocals, bass, and drums) for intimate settings, to a dynamic 6-piece lineup including saxophone, keys, and live dub mixing for a full-on reggae experience.

Whether you're planning a laid-back beach party, a cultural celebration, or a classy corporate gathering, Cappo Kelley brings authentic reggae vibes and a warm, inclusive energy that resonates with all ages.
