About

Cody Carter is a San Diego-based country artist bringing a modern, high-energy country show built for festivals, venues, casinos, private events, and major community stages. Backed by a professional band, Cody blends 90s country, today’s radio country, classic country influences, and original music into a polished live show that connects with both core country fans and broad event audiences.
Recent highlights include opening for Lady A at Viejas Casino Resort, opening for Clint Black at Humphreys, performing as local support at Temecula Valley Wine Fest, selling out Belly Up in Solana Beach, and being named a 2024 San Diego Music Awards nominee for Best Country Song.
