Deja Dua

Dua Lipa’s disco-pop hits, sung live with a four-piece band and choreography.

About

Deja Dua is a Los Angeles tribute to Dua Lipa: a lead vocalist fronting a live four-piece band, with two dancers available to add to the show.

The set runs from the breakout hits through the disco-pop of Future Nostalgia and the dance-pop of Radical Optimism: “Don’t Start Now,” “Levitating,” “Physical,” “New Rules,” “One Kiss,” “Houdini,” “Dance the Night” and more.

Expect synchronized choreography, club-couture wardrobe and a neon palette of electric pink, midnight blue and deep purple. The show runs as two 45-minute sets.

Built for corporate events, festivals, casinos and private events, and recently played The Arrow Room in Rancho Cucamonga.

Short bio

Deja Dua is a Los Angeles Dua Lipa tribute: a lead vocalist fronting a live four-piece band, with synchronized choreography and two dancers available as an add-on. The set spans the breakout hits, the disco of Future Nostalgia and the dance-pop of Radical Optimism, from “New Rules” to “Houdini.”

Full press bio

Deja Dua is a Los Angeles tribute to Dua Lipa, built as a full live show rather than a singer over tracks. A lead vocalist fronts a four-piece band of guitar, bass and drums, locked to click and tracks, with two dancers available to scale up the production. The set moves from the breakout hits through the disco of Future Nostalgia and the dance-pop of Radical Optimism: “Don’t Start Now,” “Levitating,” “Physical,” “One Kiss,” “Houdini” and “Dance the Night.” Synchronized choreography, club-couture wardrobe and a neon palette of electric pink, midnight blue and deep purple complete the look. The show runs as two 45-minute sets for corporate events, festivals, casinos and private events.
