Tribute to Journey

About

DON’T STOP BELIEVING has captured Journey’s lush signature vocal sound and authentically recreates the beloved Steve Perry era of Journey. Hearing is believing.

The music of Journey is complex although it may sound simplistic. Authentically re-creating their sound requires all five musicians to be the best at their respective craft. All five of DSB’s members are world-class players and their collective credentials are most impressive.

Journey’s music appeals to a wide variety of people. While the classic Journey fan may range in age from 20s to 60s, the band has recently enjoyed a new younger following thanks to TV shows using their music as well as club re-mixes of some of their biggest songs. With a demographic that is wide and varied, having a band that can captivate and entertain your audience is paramount. DSB is a younger, more attractive energetic act that will appeal to the younger audience as well as the older.

DSB’s stage show and charisma cross demographic lines effectively. From casino shows to family friendly fairs and festivals, DON’T STOP BELIEVING’s mass appeal will work for your event. DSB’s client retention rate is proof positive of that!
