Elite Elvis

Tribute to Elvis Presley

About

James Kruk and his band The "Big Boss Men" have created one of the most unique and entertaining Elvis Tributes in the world. James first played Elvis for Comedian Steve Martin for the Broadway tour of "Picasso at The Lapin Agile" so you know it has to be wild and crazy. Kruk has an amazing "Elvis" voice, look, humor,charisma and those almost NC-17 dance moves that get the whole house screaming. It's vibrant alive Rock and Roll played by the fantastically talented rockers "The Big Boss Men"
James performed the "Elvis" role alongside Academy Award winner Patricia Arquette in the Live Read of Quentin Tarrantino's "True Romance" sponsored by LACMA and Fim independent Directed by Jason Reitman. James Kruk recorded two songs as "Elvis" for the 2013 film "Pawn Shop Chronicles" starring Brendan Fraser, Elijah Wood, Norman Redus and Paul Walker. Director Wayne Kramer said Kruk "Saved the film" with his amazing vocals. His band has headlined many major Casino's and Summer concert series...
