All American Girl

Tribute to Carrie Underwood

About

Before graduating from UNLV, Felice landed the much coveted role as the principal singer in the longest running show on the Las Vegas Strip, Les Folies Bergere, at the Tropicana Hotel and Casino. Felice entertained audiences nightly until the show ended its run after nearly 50 years.

Following her time in Folies, Felice joined American Superstars at the Stratosphere Hotel and Casino. She starred as Carrie Underwood, performing a tribute which Felice originated for the show, and for which she garnered rave reviews.

Soon after, Felice produced, directed and starred in two of her own shows. Country Diva paid homage to country's biggest female stars. The second, a show called The Cover Girls. Felice, with two other talented women, paid tribute to the Rat Pack, performed Broadway standards and rock and roll favorites.

Between the two shows, Felice was one of three divas to headline the iCandy Burlesque show at Planet Hollywood. She has also starred in the show Fantasy at the Luxor Hotel and Casino.

Felice blew away audiences with another tribute to Carrie Underwood in the Red Hot Superstars show at the Grand Sierra Resort in her hometown of Reno, NV.

In March 2015, Felice completed a two year run in the Tony Award-Winning Musical Million Dollar

Quartet at Harrah's in Las Vegas. She performed over 800 shows since the opening of the show in February of 2013.
