Fleetwood Mask

The Fleetwood Mac Tribute

About

Fleetwood Mask is the only tribute in the Americas endorsed by Fleetwood Mac founding member Mick Fleetwood. "This band does it right. I'm proud to know the music of Fleetwood Mac is in good hands indeed," says Mick in one of his video endorsements of the group. Fleetwood Mask was founded over a decade ago to tribute one of the world's greatest rock and pop bands and has been touring the U.S. every year since.
Fans of all generations escape for an evening of Fleetwood Mask live in concert because they yearn for the ultimate in visual realism, musicianship, stage performance, and sound quality. Fleetwood Mask is a fanatically focused tribute and has gone to unimaginable lengths to ensure each performer uses the correct, exact period-accurate equipment and bespoke period-accurate stage wear to deliver audiences the most authentic tribute to Fleetwood Mac in the world. At many Fleetwood Mask shows, the band uses original touring equipment and original instruments owned and used by Fleetwood Mac in concert. No stone is left unturned. The band's penguin logo was designed by Larry Vigon, the album cover designer for

Fleetwood
Mac's White Album, Rumours, Tusk, Fleetwood Mac Live, Mirage, and 25 Years The Chain; solo album covers for Christine McVie, Mick Fleetwood, and Lindsey Buckingham; and album covers for countless other world-famous solo artists and groups.
Fleetwood Mask concerts contain the hits, fan favorites, and deep cuts to satisfy even the most discerning of Fleetwood Mac aficionados. Attendees may also experience various show productions as Fleetwood Mask presents specific tributes to Fleetwood Mac's 1980 Tusk tour, the 1982 Mirage tour, and the 1997 Dance reunion tour as part of their live concert packages.
