Hurrikane

A Tribute To The Scorpions

About

Formed in 2010 and based in Los Angeles California, HURRIKANE (a tribute to The Scorpions), name which is from the title of a landmark Scorpions Song Rock you like a Hurricane from 1984 album “Love at first Sting” worked hard to reproduce the songs as they were originally created and performed by the Scorpions. HURRIKANE captures the power and energy of one of the most successful hard rock bands of all time, also pays special attention to technical details and choreographies and stage moves of the Scorpions. HURRIKANE credibility went a notch higher when, James Kottak Scorpions drummer sat with HURRIKANE and played two songs on February 22, 2013. He was so Impressed with the Band he gave his personal endorsement Approval. Not only does HURRIKANE sound just like the original, lead singer Golfredo Bastida has the unique countertenor voice of Klaus Meine. You got to see HURRIKANE onstage to believe how these musicians impersonate their respective Scorpions character to recreate hits like Rock You Like a Hurricane, No One Like You, Intrance, Big City Nights, The Zoo, Holiday, Bad Boys Running wild, Still Loving You, Blackout, Dynamite, and the classic Wind of Change and dozens of others and the unique tunes.
