Leo Days as Elvis

Tribute To Elvis

About

Band Biography: One evening in 1983, a video recording of Elvis Presley singing “If I Can Dream” played on the television set in a Michigan home and immediately resonated in the mind of a 3-year-old boy. Since that moment, the young boy grew up continuing to listen to the King of Rock and Roll and watching his movies. Leo Days has spent endless amounts of time mastering the mannerisms, the look and the voice to become a complete embodiment of the American Legend. Through incredible live vocals and his ability to play both the piano and the guitar, Leo is able to deliver an authentic Rock and roll experience. Portraying Elvis has given him the opportunity to grace stages all over the world. Leo Days has performed in thousands of shows from weddings, corporate events and theaters to cruise ships, casinos and music festivals. For the past ten years, Leo has been working for the longest running show on the Las Vegas Strip, “Legends in Concert.” He has been cast in all of the Legends venues which include; Foxwoods Resort and Casino, Branson, Myrtle Beach, Hawaii and Las Vegas! Leo was also part of the very first cast to board the Norwegian Epic Cruise Ship. From 2010-2015, he traveled the United States with Onstage Entertainments “Elvis Lives Tour,” and in 2015, headlined his very own show in Waikiki! “Burn’n Love” was rated #1 on TripAdvisor throughout the course of it’s run on the island. World renowned, “Cirque Du Soleil” handpicked Leo from an array of tribute artists to depict The King in their production, “Viva Elvis.” He trained one-on-one in Montreal with the cast and creators of the show. He has been very fortunate and is blessed to be able to continue to entertain audiences around the world.
