Make It Last All Night

A Tribute To Tom Petty

About

In the summer of 2013, singer Erich Schneider and lead guitarist Cary Park had just finished playing “American Girl” by request, when Cary turned to Erich and said “you could be Tom Petty!” The rest of the band, Jon, Alex, and Chris, were on board from the start. They grabbed their instruments, got in the studio and before long were the hottest Tom Petty tribute in Southern California. And the band name? Well, as the song goes, take it easy baby, Make it Last All Night!

Since that time Erich and the boys in Make it Last All Night have paid tribute to Tom Petty and impressed audiences all over the California and the Southwest.: Yoshi’s in Oakland, The Siren in Morro Bay, House of Blues in Anaheim, casinos in from San Bernardino to El Paso, TX to Las Vegas, NV resort hotels in San Diego, and several private events and clubs in Southern California. They are sure to be coming to your town soon!
