Raise Your Glass

A Tribute To Pink

About

Raise Your Glass (RYG) is a Los Angeles-based musical production show that brings the excitement and music of P!nk to the repertoire of talent agencies, showroom directors, nightclub owners, and corporate event planners who need a top-level act for their client's event entertainment needs. RYG's re-creation of the live concert experience of one of the world's best-selling pop/rock artists is a perfect fit and a guaranteed crowd-pleaser for any showroom, concert stage or corporate event where the client's goal is a high-energy, professional musical show that will draw a cross-generational and diverse audience into a participatory "good-time" party atmosphere.

RYG consists of a four-piece rhythm section, and is fronted by lead vocalist Katrina Danford, whose sound and presence is a spot-on recreation of P!nk. Katrina is backed by two support vocalists/dancers who together give the performance the feel and excitement of a genuine P!nk concert. All of the players provide backing vocals, and the attention to musical detail ensures that the audience will leave a RYG show feeling they have been a part of the P!nk experience.

RYG can tailor the show to meet the needs of any venue or booking director. The show can fit anywhere from a 30 minute to a two-hour performance slot, as well as a multi-set requirement. Based on audience

makeup or client requirements, RYG provides a “family friendly” show where lyrics and audience banter are free of explicit or suggestive language. Costuming is also adjusted to be audience-appropriate.
Every show is designed to draw an audience into having an exciting, energizing experience. RYG highlights P!nk’s most recognizable material, with an emphasis on up-beat songs that get the audience to sing along as well as get on their feet and dance. Visually, the show is stunning, with costuming and production curves that take an audience on a roller-coaster ride through all of P!nk’s hits. Throughout each show, Katrina compels the audience to be a part of the show, not just spectators. For a live music act that will draw a large audience into an immersive memorable experience, look no further than Raise Your Glass!
