So Madonna

A Tribute To Madonna

About

Based in Los Angeles, So Madonna is the Ultimate Tribute Act to 1980's Madonna! Focusing on the material girl's glory days ('83-'90), they dress up, celebrate, and make every day feel like a holiday... complete with iconic wardrobe changes, choreography, and memorable Madonna moments. Playing your favorites, from “Borderline” and “Burning Up” to “Like A Prayer” and “Vogue,” they’ll make you GET UP ON THE DANCE FLOOR!

Orange County native Julianne Ruck has a diverse background in the performance arts. In addition to her outstanding role as Madonna in So Madonna, she currently reigns as Queen Isabella at Medieval Times Dinner & Tournament. Listen for her voice in several rides and attractions around Knott’s Berry Farm including the Log Ride and promotional materials for Halloween Haunt and Medieval Times. She has recorded backing vocal tracks for Elvira Mistress of the Dark, and has toured internationally with The ABBA Show tribute band. She plays featured character Miss Violet in the award-winning, immersive old west experience, Ghost Town Alive, and you can catch her singing in the saloon and performing in the old time melodrama at Knott's famous Birdcage Theater. She studied sound design and vocal performance at Chapman University and is trained in improv and several dance and vocal styles.
