Biography: Step back in time and experience the thrill of Fleetwood Mac’s golden era with Taken By The Sky, the Northwest’s premier Fleetwood Mac tribute band, based in Portland, Oregon. Known for delivering the timeless magic of Fleetwood Mac at their peak, this must-see tribute consistently breaks city records for summer concerts, sells out venues across the region, and recently headlined Harefest, \"the mother of all tribute band festivals.\" Capturing the spirit of Fleetwood Mac’s iconic years, Taken By The Sky offers audiences a truly immersive and authentic performance, complete with soaring harmonies, skillful musicianship, and a dynamic stage presence.

Fronted by the remarkable Jessa Campbell, whose vocal likeness and stage presence create a mesmerizing tribute to a young Stevie Nicks, Taken By The Sky transports fans straight into Fleetwood Mac’s heyday. Audiences rave about her uncanny ability to capture Stevie’s iconic voice and style. Alongside her, longtime collaborator Lawrence Orleck channels the fire and precision of Lindsey Buckingham, bringing the electric chemistry and passion that Fleetwood Mac is celebrated for.

Colin Hogan delivers the smooth, soulful voice and layered keyboard stylings of Christine McVie, adding depth and harmony to the band's lush soundscapes, while her husband Brian Link embodies John McVie with his rock-solid bass lines, anchoring the rhythm section with a steady pulse that resonates with the band's devoted fans. Cheo Larcombe, as Mick Fleetwood, brings boundless energy and rhythmic power, embodying the band's heartbeat with a performance that captivates audiences and fuels each song.

Aram Arslanian, as Bob Welch, captures the early Fleetwood Mac vibe and brings the band's signature guitar solos to life with masterful precision and passion. Together, the members of Taken By The Sky create an intricate tapestry of sound and spectacle that transports audiences into the heart of Fleetwood Mac's iconic sound and era. Whether performing classics like "Go Your Own Way" and "Rhiannon" or delivering captivating harmonies, Taken By The Sky offers an unforgettable experience that has audiences spellbound, night after night.
