Kenny Cetera's Chicago Experience

A Tribute To Chicago

About

The city of Chicago has produced some of the greatest artists and bands in the music world, and hailing from the south side of that town, Kenny Cetera is no exception.

Born into a family of vast musical talents, where listening to his mother and siblings constantly singing, harmonizing and rehearsing was commonplace. Kenny says “Being a singer was inevitable for me.” Kenny has recorded with Chicago, Peter Cetera, Richard Marx, Kenny Rogers, Julio Iglesias, Bill Champlin, Agnetha Faltskog (of “ABBA” fame), and producer David Foster.

In 1984, Kenny added his unmistakable tenor vocals to several songs on the Chicago 17 album - including the chart- topping "You're the Inspiration," "Stay The Night," "Along Comes A Woman" and "Prima Donna" and was quickly recruited by the band to hit the road for one of the most memorable tours in their history. Adding a vocal element that the band never had live before, two Cetera voices together. Kenny also played drums, percussion and keyboards on that tour and became a large part of the stage show, a fan-favorite, and permanently ingrained in the musical heritage of CHICAGO.

KENNY CETERA'S CHICAGO EXPERIENCE will take you back to a time that made you look forward to living your life to its fullest....with inspirational songs that will make you smile and feel stronger every day. All you have to do is listen...
