The Prince Project

A Tribute To Prince

About

THE PRINCE PROJECT, hailing from Columbiana, Ohio is quickly becoming the region's hottest and most entertaining tribute act! What makes The Prince & The Revolution tribute band stand apart is front-man DaVaughn Weber, the nationally-known Prince impersonator who has made appearances around the country and is infamous for his extreme likeness to "The Purple One".

Also featured is Lea Nesbitt as muse Wendy with her unforgettable purple Rickenbacker and killer female vocals; and Ben Bond, a local favorite known for backing local country artist Ben Bonds, as Brownmark on the bass. Rounding out the band is Michael Lesko as Dr Fink on the keys in his signature scrubs; Jazz guitarist Wayne Smith wails with energy on lead guitar as 80s favorite Dez Dickerson; Dave Fox keeps it in the erotic pocket as the ever-entertaining Bobby Z on electric drums.

The Prince Project is known for its authenticity in looks and near-perfect Revolution sound. Fans who've never seen Prince & The Revolution live will be amazed by the exact sound and look of the band, especially with Weber in the titular role.
