About

Trouble Man – A Tribute to Marvin Gaye
Direct from Los Angeles, Trouble Man is the electrifying tribute act that brings the music and magic of Marvin Gaye to life. Fronted by viral sensation L. Young, whose powerhouse vocals and dynamic stage presence capture the very soul of Marvin, the band delivers unforgettable performances of classics like “Let’s Get It On”, “Got to Give It Up”, “Distant Lover”, and “What’s Going On”. With lush harmonies, irresistible grooves, and the authentic spirit of Motown, Trouble Man transports audiences through the timeless catalog of one of soul’s greatest legends.

Sharing the stage is pop sensation Crystal Starr as Tammi Terrell, recreating the legendary chemistry with iconic duets including “Ain’t No Mountain High Enough”, “You’re All I Need to Get By”, and “Your Precious Love”. Together, they celebrate Marvin’s legacy with passion, finesse, and fire.

The Soul of Christmas – A Holiday Celebration by Trouble Man
As a special holiday production, The Soul of Christmas fuses Marvin Gaye’s artistry with the festive spirit of the season. This one-of-a-kind show opens with joyous Motown energy—Stevie Wonder’s “What Christmas Means to Me”, The Jackson 5’s “Santa Claus Is Coming to Town”, and Diana Ross & The Supremes’ stirring “Favorite Things” —before moving into soulful reinterpretations of holiday classics.

Audiences will be moved by renditions of “The Christmas Song” and “I Want to Come Home for Christmas”, groove to Otis Redding’s “Merry Christmas Baby” and Boyz II Men’s “Let It Snow”, and revel in gospel-soul versions of “O Holy Night”, “Silent Night” (Temptations style), and “Mary Did You Know”.

The evening builds to a Motown Holiday Party Finale, with “Santa Baby”, “Sleigh Ride”, James Brown’s “Santa Claus Go Straight to the Ghetto”, and a funky Christmas medley, all capped by the ultimate sing-along encore: Mariah Carey’s “All I Want for Christmas”.

A Celebration of Soul, Love & the Holidays
Whether it’s Marvin Gaye’s timeless love songs or Motown-infused holiday cheer, Trouble Man delivers a night that’s part tribute, part celebration, and all soul.

One night. One stage. One unforgettable experience. Trouble Man’s The Soul of Christmas —where the legacy of Marvin Gaye meets the magic of the holidays.
