Music enables him to pay an authentic tribute to John Paul Jones, replicating his bass, keyboard, and mandolin tunes. His performances extend beyond music into an immersive theatrical tribute experience, complete with authentic costumes and instruments.

Completing the quartet is Jimmy Wells, an accomplished drummer known for his diverse percussion styles. Wells has toured across the U.S., shared stages with Rob Halford, Pat Travers, and Michael Schenker, and brought his drumming flair to a sold-out show at the legendary Nippon Budokan in Tokyo, Japan. His performance pays homage to one of the greatest rock drummers ever - John Bonham, delivering not just note-for-note studio versions but infusing his personal expression to Zeppelin Live's performances.
